Customer's Duties and Liability Waiver

Locally Owned and Operated

Care, Custody, and Indemnification

Customer acknowledges that all equipment furnished by Mountain High Disposal remains the property of Mountain High Disposal and that Customer has the care, custody, and control of such equipment while it is located on Customer's property. Customer accepts full responsibility for the equipment and its contents during this time.

Customer agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Mountain High Disposal, its owners, officers, employees, and agents from and against any and all claims, damages, losses, liabilities, costs, or expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) arising out of or related to Customer's use, possession, or operation of the equipment, including but not limited to claims for property damage, personal injury, or death.

Customer further acknowledges that Mountain High Disposal employees may operate company vehicles on Customer's property for the purpose of servicing the container. Customer accepts full responsibility for all damage that may occur as a result of such access or service, including but not limited to damage to roads, driveways, culverts, sidewalks, fences, landscaping, lawns, pavement, underground utilities, or other property that may be contacted or affected while attempting to service the container.

Waste Restrictions

Customer warrants and represents that all waste placed in the container shall be non-hazardous in nature and compliant with all applicable federal, state, and local laws and regulations. Liquids of any kind are strictly prohibited. Tires and batteries are not permitted in roll-off dumpsters.
